CRIME ALERT

BURGLARIES - WEST CAMBRIDGE

Dates: June 13–30, 2004
Time: Late evening to early morning (11 p.m. – 6 a.m.)
Location: Brattle Street Area
Incidents: During the above outlined time frame, there have been eight (8) burglaries to homes in the Brattle Street Area. Entrance has been gained in each case through unsecured ground floor windows. Target items have been silverware and electronic equipment (computers, stereos). Some incidents took place while the homes were occupied (residents sleeping). In two of the burglaries cars (with keys) were also stolen from the driveway.

Suspect Description: There is no description of suspects at this time.
One of the stolen vehicles has been recovered in Boston. Police believe that these incidents are being perpetrated by a team of two or more subjects.

Precautions: While the Cambridge police are conducting their investigation and taking measures to prevent any further incident, residents are also urged to be extra vigilant. Please secure all points of entry and utilize lighting as a deterrent. Engage alarms if available.

Residents should call 911 immediately to report any suspicious behavior they may observe.
